↑ Call to Community

Based on Hebrews 12:1

We remember, O God...

The countless saints of history who have blazed a trail of courage through time,

We remember, O God...

The tender touch of loved ones, the example of heroes, the healing words of comforters, the remarkable acts of those who came before us.

We remember, O God...

The gentle strength of grandmothers, the faithfulness of friends, the kindness of strangers, the laughter of children, the sacrificial love of parents.

We remember, O God...

The love of Jesus, the blessing of the Spirit, the echo of his words through time, the grief from his suffering and death, and the beauty of resurrection light shining forth: in the lives of his disciples, young and old, dead and living, eloquent and silent, strange and familiar, brilliant and ordinary.

We remember in every time and place the saints of God who have shown us the face of God.

We are surrounded by so great a cloud of witnesses...let us worship God with joy!

WE HEAR GOD'S WORD

First Reading: The New Heaven and the New Earth

Revelation 21:1-6 (NRSVUE)
Lector: Calvin Livingston

Then I saw a new heaven and a new earth, for the first heaven and the first earth had passed away, and the sea was no more. And I saw the holy city, the new Jerusalem, coming down out of heaven from God, prepared as a bride adorned for her husband. And I heard a loud voice from the throne saying, "See, the home of God is among mortals. He will dwell with them; they will be his peoples, and God himself will be with them and be their God; he will wipe every tear from their eyes. Death will be no more; mourning and crying and pain will be no more, for the first things have passed away." And the one who was seated on the throne said, "See, I am making all things new." Also he said, "Write this, for these words are trustworthy and true." Then he said to me, "It is done! I am the Alpha and the Omega, the Beginning and the End. To the thirsty I will give water as a gift from the spring of the water of life.

Second Reading: Jesus Raises Lazarus to Life

John 11:32-44 (NRSVUE)
 Rev. Katie Penick

When Mary came where Jesus was and saw him, she knelt at his feet and said to him, "Lord, if you had been here, my brother would not have died." When Jesus saw her weeping and the Jews who came with her also weeping, he was greatly disturbed in spirit and deeply moved. He said, "Where have you laid him?" They said to him, "Lord, come and see." Jesus began to weep. So the Jews said, "See how he loved him!" But some of them said, "Could not he who opened the eyes of the blind man have kept this man from dying?"

Then Jesus, again greatly disturbed, came to the tomb. It was a cave, and a stone was lying against it. Jesus said, "Take away the stone." Martha, the sister of the dead man, said to him, "Lord, already there is a stench because he has been dead four days." Jesus said to her, "Did I not tell you that if you believed you would see the glory of God?" So they took away the stone. And Jesus looked upward and said, "Father, I thank you for having heard me. I knew that you always hear me, but I have said this for the sake of the crowd standing here, so that they may believe that you sent me." When he had said this, he cried with a loud voice, "Lazarus, come out!" The dead man came out, his hands and feet bound with strips of cloth and his face wrapped in a cloth. Jesus said to them, "Unbind him, and let him go."

"I Sing a Song of the Saints of God"
NCH #295 (Black Hymnal)

Invitation

Come; gather around the Table with a song of praise! God be with you.

And with your spirit.

Lift up your hearts.

We lift them up to God.

Give thanks to God.

It is right to give God thanks and praise.

Litany of Remembrance

Today we come to this place made holy by the faith and witness of those who have inspired and taught us over the years.

We remember with gratitude.

Our mothers and fathers in the faith brought the word of God to this place. By their courage and commitment, the church here was gathered and given life.

We remember with gratitude.

Let us not forget these examples of Christian witness, whose faithful touch extends throughout the generations.

We remember with gratitude.

Remembering those Christians who have gone before us, let us follow as they followed in the way, the truth, and the life of Jesus Christ.

We dedicate ourselves anew to the faith that is Jesus Christ.

Knowing that God has made the Church God's instrument to minister to the world in all generations,

We dedicate ourselves anew to witness to Jesus Christ.

Trusting that God will continue to speak God's love for all people and that God will look to the Church today,

We dedicate ourselves anew to being the Church and following in the footsteps of those who came before us.

All the Names within Our Hearts.

We join them and all the angels and saints of heaven to sing the hymn of unending praise:

Holy, Holy, Holy One. God of remembrance and love.
Heaven and earth are full of your wonder.
Hosanna, among us!

The Story

Gathered with his friends, Jesus took bread, broke it and said:

“This is my body, broken for you. Take and eat.”

And pouring the wine, he said:

“This is my blood, spilled out for you. Do this in remembrance of me.”

Prayer for the Spirit

God of all, send your Spirit to this place so that those gathered here, in this sacred moment, may know your presence. As we eat the bread and drink of the cup, make us one with the saints, and with our sisters, siblings and brothers in faith around the world.

Be with us God, not only here but in every moment of our lives. Help us to know you, to be guided by the Holy Spirit, and to live in Christ, now and forever. And may all the people join together to say...

Amen.
